

THE MONDAY REPORT

SHELTON STATE COMMUNITY COLLEGE

JUNIOR COLLEGE DIVISION 202 SKYLAND BLVD. TUSCALOOSA, AL 35406

October 1, 1984

Lucy Kubiszyn, Editor

PHI THETA KAPPA TO MEET

Phi Theta Kappa will meet Wednesday, October 10, at 12:30 p.m. in room 87. Members and potential members are encouraged to attend. If students have maintained a 3.2 QPA, they should pick up PTK applications in the Dean of Students' office.

ANN DURASKI TO OPEN SHELTON MUSIC SERIES

Ann Duraski will open Shelton's 1984-85 music series with a concert on Monday, October 1, at 12:30 p.m. in the music room of the Junior College Division.

Ms. Duraski is currently teaching voice at the college. She is a doctoral candidate in voice literature and performance at the Eastman School of Music. She received her Bachelor of Music degree from Auburn University with Highest Honors and her Master of Music from the University of Alabama. She has appeared in opera productions with several opera companies including the Birmingham Civic Opera, the Chautauqua Opera Company. Last spring she appeared as Lucretia in the Eastman Opera Theater's production of Britten's Rape of Lucretia. She has also performed with several orchestras and choruses including the Corning Oratorio Society and the Chautauqua Festival Orchestra and has won the Mobile Alabama District Metropolitan Opera Audition. She will perform in the Tuscaloosa Community Players performance of Peter Pan that is scheduled to open in October.

As part of the concert, an operatic duet by Ms. Duraski and Eleanor McElvy, another member of Shelton's faculty, will be featured.

SEVENTEEN MYTHS MANY BOARDS LIVE BY

A nationally acclaimed nonprofit author and workshop leader will hold a workshop at Shelton State Community College as part of the college's Building Better Boards for Community Organizations, a program designed to strengthen nonprofit boards.

Andrew Swanson, president of Community Services Consultants, Ltd., Providence Rhode Island, will speak on "Seventeen Myths Many Boards Live by and Developing Future Leadership for your Board." The workshop is scheduled for Wednesday, October 17, from 8:30 a.m. - 12:30 p.m. in the auditorium of the Junior College Division. The workshop cost is $25 and there is a half price discount for the second person from the same agency or organization attending the meeting.

Swanson is the author of MEETING SENSE FOR BOARDS AND BOARD COMMITTEES, LEADERSHIP DEVELOPMENT AND THE NOMINATING PROCESS, THE DETERMINATION TEAM: A HANDBOOK FOR BOARD MEMBERS OF VOLUNTEER ORGANIZATIONS, THE PRESIDENT AND THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS. He is also the author of BOARD SENSE: COMMON SENSE FOR NONPROFIT BOARD MEMBERS, a monthly column subscribed to by 93 national and large state associations for the benefit of their members of boards of directors.

For information or to register, contact Lucy Kubiszyn, BBB project director.

SPECIAL EXHIBIT IN LIBRARY

A special exhibit of wood carvings by Harold Coleman of Meadow Lawn in Tuscaloosa is currently on exhibit in the library of the junior college. The exhibit will showcase Coleman's carvings of ducks and other wildfowl.

The exhibit will continue through October 12 and will be on display during regular library hours, Monday - Thursday, 8 a.m. - 9 p.m. and Friday, 8 a.m. - 4 p.m.

SOUTH ALABAMA RECRUITER TO VISIT SHELTON

Leigh Holland from the University of South Alabama will be at Shelton State on Monday, October 1, to talk to any student who is interested in attending South Alabama.

ALBRITTON ELECTED PRESIDENT

Dr. Lee Albritton, instructor of chemistry for Shelton State Community College was elected president of the Alabama College Chemistry Teachers Conference held recently. Shelton instructor Dr. Richard Saylor also attended the conference. Membership in the organization is composed of two and four year college chemistry teachers in the state of Alabama.

Functions of ACCTC are to coordinate chemistry programs in the state, provide chemical education for its members of recent advances in chemistry, insure a uniform course of study of chemistry programs throughout the state, address mutual problems that might arise, allow members to become acquainted with each other socially.

A claims lawyer was the keynote speaker and discussed the various liabilities that could occur in the chemistry laboratory and ways to prevent them.

The group also discussed the pre-nursing chemistry requirements and the problems involved in students transfer from two year to four year colleges.

Paula Ballard of Jefferson State Junior College in Birmingham was elected secretary-treasurer.

SHELTON TO PARTICIPATE IN WEST BLOCTON CELEBRATION

Shelton State Community College participated in commemorating the centennial celebration of West Blocton. Featured as part of the varied activities documenting the past history and future potential of West Blocton, Shelton faculty and students presented appropriate vocal and dramatic selections.

Shelton students from West Blocton were introduced. Brian Jones sang several vocal selections from FIDDLER ON THE ROOF and Glenn and Carole Johnson presented selections from SPCON RIVER. Coordinator for the program was Dr. Paula Sue Hayes. Congratulations to West Blocton and good wishes for your second century.

ATTENTION PEOPLE INTERESTED IN BUYING LIFE INSURANCE

Representatives from Metropolitan Insurance companies will be at Shelton State Community College to answer any questions concerning insurance on October 16-18 in room #3 from 12:30 - 1:30 p.m.

PLOWMAN REIGNS AS FAIR QUEEN

Lisa Plowman, former Shelton student and 1983 Miss Shelton State, was crowned queen of the West Alabama Fair last week. Miss Plowman is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Plowman of Tuscaloosa and won the title over 12 other contestants.

Recently Miss Plowman was named Tuscaloosa County Farm Bureau Talent Find winner and will represent the county in the state contest in December.

Other Shelton students in the finalist are Camille Hughes, former student at the Technical Divison, and Glenda White, fourth alternate, who currently attends Shelton State.

ALABAMA FIRE COLLEGE TO HOLD SCHOOL

The Alabama State Fire College will sponsor the National Fire Academy Building Construction for Fire Suppression Forces, October 16-17, at Trenholm State Technical College Montgomery.

The National Fire Academy is a component of the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA). FEMA was established in 1979 to focus federal effort on preparedness, mitigation, and response to national emergencies encompassing the full range of natural and manmade disasters.

This course is an introduction to basic construction principles and the special characteristics of wood and ordinary construction as they concern the fire service.